

Teddy Geiger, Bitter

Minutes turn into hours hours lead into days
it's been years now since the trouble you left me
And I won't say
I'm not bitter
but i've seen better days
I'm not bitter
Is it the better man that always walks away no phone call or even a letter no words to cause me any pain it's been years now since anything could hurt me Throught this life I fake my way
I'm not bitter
but i've seen better days
I'm not bitter
Is it the better man that always walks away
watch me walk away
I'm not bitter
but i've seen better days
I'm not bitter
I'll be the better man, watch me walk away
