Teenage Fanclub, Free Again

Well I'm free again, to do what I wanna do Free again, to sing my song again Free again, to air my longing, And to be out on my own again

Well I had me a girl, but she couldn't understand Me and my ways, and my need to be around Left her today, took my life in my hands And now I'm free again

Well I'm free again, to do what I wanna do Free again, to sing my song again Free again, to air my longing, And to be out on my own again

Well I made a mistake, and thought I could turnaround, Thought I could take, a leash on my neck, around Now I'm gonna make, my way to another Til my feet are back on the ground

Yes I'm free again, to do what I wanna do Free again, to sing my song again Free again, to air my longing, And to be out on my own again

Free again, to do what I wanna do Free again, to sing my song again Free again, to air my longing, To be out on my own again
