

Teenage Fanclub, That's All I Need To Know

Long ago, I used to grow
But stops when I got bored
But all along, the cynic song
Is something I ignored

It's your love, I dream of
And that's all I need to know

If I've got what you've not
The world says galot (?)
But I've got what we've got
So I don't want to know

It's your love, I dream of
And it's all I need to know

Ah, ah, ah...

It's your love, I dream of
And that's all I need to know
It's your love, I dream of
And that's all I need to know
It's your love, I dream of
And that's all I need to know
It's your love, I dream of
And that's all I need to know
