

Tegan & Sara, Empty In Between

You wear that superstar status on your shoulder
Don't worry I won't lean on you when I get colder
Send a million copies and I'll buy back your love
Tell everyone I hate you and I'll blame the above

Love
You're breaking me
Oh and love
You're shaking me
Yeah
To the car
To the front door
I'm left empty in between

You wear that chip like it makes up your wardrobe
Don't worry I won't tell anyone you're so bad
Send a million copies and I'll buy back your love
Tell everyone I hate you and I'll blame the above

Love
You're breaking me
Oh and love
You're shaking me
Yeah
To the car
To the front door
Well I'm left empty in between

Love
You're breaking me
Oh and love
You're shaking me
To the car
To the front door
I'm left empty in between
