

Tegan & Sara, I Take All The Blame

Grass to my knees
Give them hope
And new joints
Bend and lean
On me when
You feel that
Strange dream fill
My back with cold night air through my lungs
Limping on two legs again

Dont you think that
Ive been giving up
Dont you think that
Ive been giving up

I take the blame
I take the blame
I move away

Space
In my life
Give me lots
Of room to grow
Pull my ears
Back with the words
Heart beats heard
You have my
Chest full of cold night air in my lungs
Limping on two legs again

Dont you think that
Ive been giving up
Dont you think that
Ive been giving up

Change I take the blame
Change, I take the blame
I move
Change
I take the blame
I take the blame
I move
