

Tegan & Sara, Soundcheck

...even when I'm distant what I am would you move me and take me dancing and pull me to ya and say glad I'm yours and you're mine

if I battle the worlds
and break bones to get hurt would you take me if I dial the words

-BREAK-

if I battle the worlds
would you stay with me all night stay til I'm all right and say
love me

If I take you to and Hold your hand right through () We'll be off the phone () and me love you longer than you.()
love me
Even when I'm distant

If I show you true love You might only think of you that rain is falling () make known on you star and () love me even when I'm distant who I am
would you move me and take me dancing pull me to ya and say

if I battle the worlds
would you stay with me all night would ya stay til I'm all right
love me

blah blah....blah

this body before me this sadness that you're feeling
who I am
would you move and take me dancing

all this really me () cause I'm your you I'm here to hold you oh I really need is a reach out from you () reach out for me

oh its these stories include a flight of affairs my life's collections but my life remains so bare these two stories

they collide right here and my life will remember and id rather keep these stories clear so all you love and all you do because all thats lost and all thats found so its better here than underground waiting for spring

waiting for spring
all this dirt, all that's cursed deep inside like a thirst waiting for fall
waiting for fall

these hidden memories include a love affair
my life's good work undone and soon my life remains so bare these soon memories

through the years beneath you but i shall read these stories clear all your love and all you lose there's love inside like a fuse waiting for power

waiting for power
and all that's good all that's worse and misinformed, and like a thirst waiting for power
waiting for power

ooooh where are shadows of broken joy ooooh are you sad or overjoyed i see your world changing it's views so i must change too well I see your heartache out on your sleeve dont you leave fill us with change console and to save and find the power
ooooh where are shadows of broken joy

include a love affair
till my life remains so bare

and I'd rather remember and I'm gonna keep these stories clear.

Those windows, these eyes
Dont worry, I wont cry/pry/fight
And if you go, should I stay?
And if I lie, which way?

If I love again and I end up just the same
If I move away, will you give chase?
Will you give chase?

Those windows, these eyes
And if you go, should I stay?
And if I lie, which way?
Which way?

If I love again and I end up just the same
If I move away, will you give chase?
If I love again and I end up just the same
If I move away, will you give chase?
Will you give chase?

Will you
Will you
Will you
Will you
Will you
Will you
Will you
Will you
Will you
Give chaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaase
