

Tegan & Sara, They're Waiting For You

He'll shop another day, in other ways
Since she's wasted her life away
And I watch her as she leaves
It all behind for him

And I promised myself,
I wouldn't let myself get this far behind
and I promised myself,
I wouldn't let you run it all this time

And I watch you as you lose yourself
In the thoughts of all
The things you've done
And if I could get it all out
All the things I've lost
All the things I've done bad

And I promised myself
I wouldn't let you get that way that time
and I promised myself
I wouldn't let you lose yourself this time

So what're you gonna do
When you wake up tomorrow
In someone else's bed?
What're you gonna do tomorrow
When you wake up
In someone else's head?

So have another drink,
It'll make you cool,
It'll make you you.

We don't have fun when
We're together anymore
Only get together when we're bored
We don't have fun when
We're together anymore
All we get when we're together
Is more fucking bored.

And I watch my head fall in your hands
And I wonder
Where have I been all this time?
And I watch my thoughts fall in your dreams.
And I wonder
Where have you been all this time?
And I

So you have another drink,
I bet it makes you look like a fool.
