

Television Personalities, All My Dreams Are Dead

All my dreams are dead
Buried in the ground
All my dreams are dead
Lost before I'm found

I remember a day I wanted everything
But now I'd settle for a little piece of mind

All my dreams are dead
Buried in the ground
All my dreams are dead
Lost before I'm found

I remember a day when life held oh so much
But now I realise I'm slowly losing touch

'Cos all my dreams are dead
Buried in the ground

I remember the day John Lennon died
Swear I must have cried for a week
I must have cried for a week
I remember the day Andy Warhol died
I must have cried for a week
Now all my dreams are dead
