

Television Personalities, Do You Know What The

Do you know what they're saying about me now?
Have you heard what they're saying about me now?
I know they laugh at me, call me a fool
Maybe I'm not as cool as I once was

They can't hurt me now
I've heard it all before
And anyway I'm feeling better now
Oh am I blue
Oh is it true

The world comes tumbling down like a dream
Oh am I sad
Oh am I blue

Can you see that I've been crying
But there's no more tears for crying
So understand the things I say
You can't hurt me anyway

Do you know what they're saying about me now?
Do you know what they're saying about me now?

Yes I've had better years

And I'm all cried out of tears
I was naive when I was young
But now maybe I'm wise

And everytime I've got it good
I'm scared that I might have it bad

And every time I feel so good
I feel guilty and I feel I'm better off when sad

Look at me now
Am I going down?

And I'm wearing (...) frown
Look at me now
Do I look as if I'm down

And I've almost given up trying
Cause there's no more tears for crying
Do you understand the way I am?

Do you know what they're saying about me now?
Do you know what they're saying about me now?
