

Television Personalities, I Was A Mod Before You

I can go anywhere anytime I choose
I will never ever be a substitute
Just set me free and then you'll watch me fly
And heaven knows I'm a lucky guy

I look pretty cool in my bowling shoes
My Ben Sherman shirt is a classic shade of blue

Cause I was mod before you was a mod
Yeah I was mod before you was a mod

We're moving around on a cool dance floor
You're taking me down to a distant shore

I'm grooving the night with Mr. Glove
He's showing me things that I didn't know

Drop some blues and away we go
Taking a trip down to the coast
Oh yeah

Cause I was mod before you was a mod
Yeah I was mod before you was a mod

And you take me to a higher ground
The coolest love that I have ever found
Just set me free and then you watch me fly
And heaven knows I'm a lucky guy

I can go anywhere anytime I choose
I will never ever be a substitute
Just set me free and then you'll watch me fly
And heaven knows I'm a lucky guy

I look pretty cool in my bowling shoes
My Ben Sherman shirt is a classic shade of blue

Cause I was a mod before you was a mod
Yeah I was mod before you was a mod
