

Television Personalities, If I Was Your Girlfriend

It sends a shiver down my spine
I can't deny these feelings inside
I wonder what it would be like
To sleep by your side I can't deny

But there's no passion in my life anymore
There is no passion in my life
But oh if I was your girlfriend

I feel myself when I'm with you
That much is true when I'm with you

There is no passion in my life anymore
There is no passion in my life
But oh if I was your girlfriend
There is no passion in my life
But oh if I was your girlfriend

It must be difficult for girls
How would I know?
We're in two different worlds

How would I know

But if I was your girlfriend
I was your girlfriend
Oh if I was your girlfriend

And I guess you've got it bad
How would I know?
Let your feelings show
Then I could know
Just what it's like
If I was your girlfriend

And I know you're a witch
But at least you're a good witch
It must be difficult for girls

Difficult for girls
I was your girlfriend
Difficult for girls
