

Television Personalities, This Time There's No Ha

This time there's no happy ending
This time the whole thing's for real
This time you've got what you wanted
This time it's almost surreal

And in my mind it seemed so clear
And in my heart I held you dear
But you should have left me long ago
And if you hadn't loved me you surely wouldn't hate me now

This time there's no happy ending
This time I feel it's for certain
This time you've got what you wanted
This time it's my final curtain

And in my mind it seemed so clear
And in my heart I held you dear
But I wish you'd left me long ago
I wish I'd never loved you. I surely wouldn't hate you now

This time there's no happy ending

This time the damn thing's for real
This time you've got what you wanted
This time it's almost surreal

And in my mind it seemed so clear
And in my heart I held you dear
But you should have left me long ago
I wish you'd never loved me. You surely wouldn't hate me now

This time there's no happy ending
(This time there's no happy ending)
This time there's no happy ending
(This time there's no happy ending)
This time there's no happy ending
(This time there's no happy ending)
This time there's no happy ending
(This time there's no happy ending)

I'll pack my bags I'm leaving tomorrow
