

Temples, Gamma Rays

You feel aligned in the open plain
You see the rise of the monsoon rain
You analyse all the worth you see
While dining out with the bourgeoisie
The gamma rays in the midnight sun
Are shadows now in the midnight slum
The promise land or a hideaway
They couldn't keep me away, away from your

There's a feeling out tonight
You say that you want it all
There's a feeling after night

Soaking up the rays, gamma rays
Starlight falls in and out of phase
Soaking up the rays, gamma rays
We stand golden in the summer haze

You feel alive in the paper rain
You see the rise of the earth shake wave
You analyse all the world you see
While passing out with the blue elite
The gamma rays in the midnight hour
Are shadows now and the midnight sour
The promise land or a Shangri-La
It couldn't keep me away, away from your

The fear is out tonight
It never could keep us away
The fear is out tonight

Soaking up the rays, gamma rays
Starlight falls in and out of phase
Soaking up the rays, gamma rays
We stand golden in the summer haze
