

Temporary Basement, Laguna Beach

Man I need a little holiday
Man I need some time to get away
I know you'll know that no one will know

You say you gotta work today
You say your shift begins and ends at 8
But nothing keeps me, It's true
Nothing keeps me from you

You saw you wanna abroad someday
Maybe Prague or Rome or maybe Spain
I know you know that no one will know

Laguna Beach is where I'll reach for you
And all your sisters too!

I can't stand it
I don't wanna know
Maybe I should go back
Back to Laguna Beach!

Sometimes I wish that time would go away
Maybe we'll find a little place to stay
I know you know that no one will know
