

Temporary Basement, Spies

So many things go on in my life now
Don't know what is going on?
All these things in my head going crazy
I'm all alone

Fading away silently
Is there anyone trying to kill me?
There's so many things going on in my life now
Don't know what the hell is going on!

I need you
I lie true
And I know you've never been one
And I know you've never been one of us.

Oh my God the world is in chaos.
Please someone pull me free
I am stuck in the eyes of terror
Complete shroud of mystery.

Oh my god I'm feeling paranoia
Everyone and everything
Coming out to try to get me
My fear is like a drowning plea!
