

Ten Foot Pole, Pete's Shoes

A gift of life
See the sunset
Mother earth
On the sand
Feel the impressions inside my head
My minds a wandering
My minds a wandering

And I can't forget the way I feel
I won't forget now that I know
Something that drives me to the end
And leaves

Going by my instincts they know what's right
I try not to keep it all inside
Sometimes when I'm sitting on the edge
I need to push me

So when your knocking
Sn my door
If I open wil you open up to me
If I let you will you go all the way
Will you join me will you join me
