

Ten Second Epic, Boys Will Be Boys

Tattooed are memories from home,
Goodbyes are the only thing I know.
(every time I leave it's not alright)
Deep down I hope you understand,
But this path is understood only by my own.

Don't you sleep cause I can't sleep tonight.
The time is obvious to me.
Don't you sleep cause I can't sleep tonight.
So stay up late, wait up for me.
Why can't you wait when every night is not the end?

The sun's been setting on the roadside,
It's not the same here when you go.
You're disappearing like the daylight,
It's not the same here when you go.

Twice told and I won't say again,
When it's done I'm coming back to you,
(cause you're the reason why I still come home).
We got less then what we need,
So lets make the best of every desperate dial tone.

Don't you sleep cause I can't sleep tonight.
The time is obvious to me.
Don't you sleep cause I can't sleep tonight.
So stay up late, wait up for me.
Why can't you wait when every night is not the end?

The sun's been setting on the roadside,
It's not the same here when you go.
You're disappearing like the daylight,
It's not the same here when you go.

And this asphalt wont solve enough,
Cause this road lacks human touch.
But I believe the source that push away...
It pulls me back to you.

The sun's been setting on the roadside,
It's not the same here when you go.
You're disappearing like the daylight,
It's not the same here when you go.

And my foot is gliding on the pedal all the way,
My foot is gliding all the way.
