

Ten Shekel Shirt, Cheer Up

Cheer up, you are worse off than you figure
But you are loved anyway and I always see who you could be

All the stars are waiting for you to shine
And your heart is beating to find it's home in mine

Stand up, you are stronger than you figure
You just need to be surrounded by those who believe in you

All the stars are waiting for you to shine
And your heart is beating to find it's home in mine
All the stars are waiting for you to shine
And your heart is waiting to find it's home in mine

You've got to know that I won't throw stones your way

All creation waits...
Oh, for you to take your place, take your place

All the stars are waiting for you to shine
And your heart is beating to find it's home in mine

Wake up it's time to dream bigger
Wake up it's time.
