

Ten Times A Day, Breathe

Just another day the people always say
That time will make the pain
Make the pain just go away
Time like down the line
My mind treats me so unkind
And that it seems like so long
It's too late now I'm so far gone.
But it doesn't phase me
Cause you are all crazy
Pissed off nine to five while
I'm having a good time...
Here we are falling today
Never wanting to change
Always living inside if a stupid rut
Always the same.
It doesn't seem to me
That things will ever change
When I step out the door
You make my life feel so estranged
What the hell is going on
When I am far from home
You're talking shit behind my back
When I'm three thousand miles away.
But it doesn't phase me
Cause I know you're all crazy
Pissed off nine to five while
I'm having a good time
Well it doesn't phase me
Cause I know you're all crazy
Pissed off nine to five
While I'm having a good time.
Here we are falling today
Never wanting to change
Living inside this stupid rut
Always the same falling again
Never wanting to change
Living inside of this stupid rut
Always the same.
