

Ten Years After, Positive Vibrations

(Alvin Lee)

In the night - when you're all alone
With the one - that you call your own
Ask yourself - if you're doing good
Give yourself some positive vibrations,
Give yourself some positive vibrations.

Well, the skies - they look down on you;
And the stars, they will guide you through
On this plane - that we all live on
Give yourself some positive vibrations,
Give yourself some positive vibrations.

Too many wanderers are wandering;
Too many ponderers are pondering;
Too many squanderers are squandering.
All you've got to do - is let the sun come shining through.
Give yourself some positive vibrations,
Give yourself some positive vibrations.

You can do - what you want to do,
You can call the game you play.
You can go - where you want to go.
Give yourself some positive vibrations,
Give yourself some positive vibrations.
