

Ten Years After, Without You

(Alvin Lee)

Without you, could-n't start the day, babe;
Without you - I would-n't stand a chance,
Without you - the sky would be so grey, babe.
I just want to be within you, close enough to feel within you.

Without you - I'm crawling on all fours;
Without you - the room has got no doors.
Without you - the stars don't seem to shine, girl;
Without you - it seems so hard to smile;
Without you - my life don't seem so fine, girl.
Just because I really love you, I want you to know I love you.

Without you - no reason I can see for living.
Without you - there's nothing left to me for giving.
Without you - I cannot smile no more;
Without you - I'm left flat on the floor
Without you - the days would be too sad to handle.
Without you - my life is just a burned out candle.

Without you - the days would be too sad for living.
Without you - there's nothing left for giving.
Without you - all the minutes pass me by like hours.
Without you - I'm just like a grave without the flowers.
Without you.
