

Ten2five, I Will Fly

Ten2Five ' I Will Fly

You know all the things I've said
You know all the things that we have done
And things I gave to you
If there's a chance for me to say
How precious you are in my life
And you know that is true

To be with you is all that I need
'cause with you my life seems brighter
and these are all the things I wanna say

I will fly into your arms
And be with you till the end of time
Why are you so far away
You know it's very hard for me to get my self close to you

You're the reason why I stay
You're the one who can not believe
Our love will never end
Is it only in my dream ?
You're the one who can not see this
How could you be so blind

To be with you is all that I need
'cause with you my life seems brighter
And these are all the things I wanna say
