

Tendency To Talk, 90 Second Song

This is fast, a 90 second song it won't last, it's gone and left behind in the past, this is fast, it can't last tread slow

but nothing's happening we still go
the floor is thundering and we know
we can't slow
let's just go

pull back on what you need we've always been built for speed I say we raise our breed can we pull the chain

so fly against the light we'll drive on through til midnight our purpose for the fight
then we'll start again
pleased to start again you know it'll be alright

our saviour is agreed

we'll drive on through till midnight
our purpose for the fight
