

Tenth Hour Calling, Your Eyes

Your eyes are that captured
There I find myself
Reflected there a picture
Of You and I in circles

Your hands are what took me
Past the outer gate
You showed me all there was You and me
Then You took off all the weights

It's in you I put my treasure
It's in you I put my faith
Let me frown in those two pools

Your eyes of love have found me
You looked deep inside my soul
My wounds were healed and now I;m finally free

I felt these eyes upon me
As I sailed unto your sea
I felt the deepness of your ocean
Down inside of me
