

Teramaze, Deeper Crying

A thousand tears
You felt the anger
Burning in your heart
And standing alone you fight
Temptation's war
The rage of emptiness
Silently afraid of the darkness
Deeper crying
A broken home, a tortured soul
(God will not fail you)
Call the wind upon that day to fill that
Emptiness from hate
Lowered into darkness
Deeper crying
Lowered into darkness
Deeper Crying
If they understand
Could you understand?
Could you understand that there
Is hope within our faith?
Don't close your mind
He will give you life
Open your eyes
He will give you sight
Don't close your mind
Open your eyes
There is no other way
To find your way home
Shed no tear
The end of life awaiting you
Is Jesus Christ
