

Teresa Brewer, Bell Bottom Blues

I've got the bell-bottom blues cause my sweetie is a sailor and he's sailin somewhere out to sea
I've got the bell-bottom blues cause I'm crazy 'bout a sailor and I don't know when he's comin' back
I shake my head and refuse when the fellers come a callin' and they want to take me on a date
I've got the bell-bottom blues while the other gals are fallin I just sit around the living room and wait
I wonder if he's lookin at the same moon I'm lookin at everynight I'm lookin at the moon
I know if he's prayin for the same thing I'm prayin for we'll be together soon!
I got the bell-bottom blues just a waitin for a letter heaven knows I'm lonely as can be
I got the bell-bottom blues and I won't be feelin better till my sailor boy comes sailin home to me
Instrumental

I wonder if he's lookin at the same moon im lookin at every night im lookin at the moon
I know if he's prayin for the same thing im prayin for we'll be together soon!
I got the bell-bottom blues just a waitin for a letter heaven knows im lonely as can be
I got the bell-bottom blues and I won't be feelin better till my sailor boy comes sailin home to me
Till my sailor boy comes sailin home to me!!
