

Teresa Brewer, The Banjos Back In Town

Clap your hands altogether now
The banjo's back in town
Clap your hands lovely weather now
The banjos back in town

Kick your heels to the ringing of the vulcans swinging through
What a town! Round and round with a doo wacka doo wacka doo

You gotta step your feet to the rhythm back in 1925
Get that beat keep the rhythm alive and with that fellow down below
Just give it that Yodee-oh-doh
That ban-ban-banjos back in town.
