

Terminal Choice, Age Of Suffering

"Eine geheimnisvolle tragische Prophezeiung hatte die Ankunft der Dmonen auf der Erde angekündigt.
Sie werden aus euern Friedhofen
Kathedralen machen, und sie schnden Eure Grber.
So stand es in der Prophezeiung."

An old man stands on a hill
A young woman in front of him
A dead baby in her arms
A deadly disease in her veins
The sky is dark, there is no sun
No hope in her eyes, she wants to die
The old man breathes and open his mouth
His dark prophecies come right out

Welcome all you bloody bastards
"This is the age of suffering"
Kill your enemies, kill your friends
"This is the age of suffering"
Celebrate your useless wars
"This is the age of suffering"
See the dead rise from their graves
"This is the age of suffering"

Fire is falling from the sky
Red rain falls on the land
Many people have to die
There is no hope and no solution
This is the beginning of the dark age
No god can help us now
It's our destiny to suffer in pain
Mankind is going to die

Welcome all you bloody bastards
"This is the age of suffering"
Kill your enemies, kill your friends
"This is the age of suffering"
Celebrate your useless wars
"This is the age of suffering"
See the dead rise from their graves
"This is the age of suffering"

Welcome all you bloody bastards
"This is the age of suffering"
Kill your enemies, kill your friends
"This is the age of suffering"
Celebrate your useless wars
"This is the age of suffering"
See the dead rise from their graves
"This is the age of suffering"
