

Terminal Choice, Universe Of Love

Come into my universe of love
Watch the moon and stars above
All i really want is you
Let me show you what i feel
My desire for you is real
All i really need is you

I take you to a place
A place where we can hide
It's dark and warm
You'll like it here my dear
We take your clothes off
I wanna touch your skin
I hold your body close
I look into your eyes

I feel you very near
Your heart beats like drum
I feel your lips on mine
And than you close your eyes
I take out my knife
But you can't feel the steel
And than your feel it too
My love for you is real...
