

Terra Naomi, Go Quietly

on the day you came to did you know you had come did you know why you came could you feel where you're from did you ask it out loud when no one could hear you did you cry all alone when everyone feared you

i ask you this
mostly for me
cause people like us
can go quietly

when they told you to stop did you want to keep going when they pushed you to tears could you feel the pain showing did you know you were drifting from the moment you drifted and could you feel your heart shifting before it had shifted,

mostly for me
