

Terri Clark, If I Where You

You where standing on my front pouch when I came home tonight and I could tell by look you gave me, you were needing my advise.

You said you want more out of life then he can give you,
as a tear ran down your face.

But girl, I've seen the way he look's at you and I know someone who'd gladly take your place.

Chorus

If I where you,

I'd run back home tonight,

tell him "everything's alright."

yea I know what'd I'd do,

if I where you,

I'd never let him go,

id have someone to hold my whole life though,

if I where you.

You shouldn't think your missing out on something, because you wear a wedding band cause I cant seem to find somebody who wants more than just

You know this single life I'm living, aint all it's cracked up to be.

So, you've come to the wrong pace if what you want is sympathy

Chorus

If I where you,

I'd run back home tonight,

tell him "everything's alright,"

yea I know what'd I'd do,

if I where you I'd never let him go

I'd have someone to hold my whole life though,

if I where you.

I'd run back home tonight, tell him "everything's alright,"

yea I know what'd I'd do

if I where you'd never let him go

id have someone to hold my whole life though,

if I where you.

If I where you.
