

Terri Nunn, Go Ask The Lonely

There's a pain in my head
And a hole in my bed
Where you used to lay
Yesterday

There's a cat on our roof
And he howls at the moon
No one hears his plea
Sounds a lot like me

How does it feel to wake up
Alone every night
With no one to hold you
And tell you everything's alright

Go ask the lonely
How it feels to cry
Go ask the lonely how it hurts inside
Go ask the lonely how it feels to be free
Don't ask me

Got some time on my hands
Got these chains off my feet
Oh does it mean
My life's complete

There's a song in my heart
And I keep going on
But that doesn't mean it's easy to be strong

Whatever happened to all our hopes and dreams
Whatever happened to you and me
You and me

Go ask the lonely
How it feels to cry
Go ask the lonely how it hurts inside
Go ask the lonely how it feels to be free
Don't ask me
