

Terror, Enemies In Sight

So your gonna tell me what's hardcore
Pass judgement on me and distort my words
I fucking gave my life to this

I talk too much, I contradict myself
I do the same thing, I'm full of myself
Say what you say, it holds no weight

I'm looking you in the eye
Keep my enemies in clear sight

No more dead weight, cut it away
The force of vengeance is inside me
It's all coming back at you

Till my heart stops this lives through me
Tried and true, proven longevity
It's you that cracks with time

I'm looking you in the eye
Keep my enemies in clear sight

I hope by now you know where this is coming from 30 long years and I'm still core as fuck
Time to shut you down, put you in check
Smash the truth in your face, and send you on your way
