

Terror, No One Cares

Attention, that's your only friend
Every move you make, you want seen by them
And you speak so loud, so we know what you're about
Now all eyes are on you, still you never made a sound

No one cares
About all the shit you do
No one cares
You look like a fool

Always know the right ones
Always front and center, wasting space
Throwing your opinions, drawing them in Making sure that we see your face

No one cares what you do
No one cares about you
