

Terry Allen, I Just Left Myself

Well

I just left myself today

Hell

I couldn't wait to get away

There's still a smear

Across the mirror

That I have been

But it won't

Reflect on me

Again

'Cause

Yeah

I just packed me up and went away

I didn't float

I didn't fly

I did not transcend

No I

Just walked out on me

Again

Again
