

Terry Poison, 24 Hours

There's somewhere plotting with Kimberly
She's been abducted, baby, by the aliens, baby
Oh, honey, we go way back
It's only you and me here, now initially here
Now I want you on the run again
Twenty-four hours with Jackie Bower, baby
Baby, come back, we gotta save the world
We gotta kick ass, honey, gotta kick ass, honey, now
I never thought I'd get here, honey, it's a miracle
Twenty-four hours left to go

We waited in a window, then in a basement
On the screen to the left
The president and Terry Poison fighting the corruption
It will be a mess
Terry and the beach boys
They gonna drop the bomb
The fucking A-bomb, honey
Gotta find them, and then we save them
We got to conquer, honey, we could save the world
I never thought I'd get here, honey, it's a miracle

Hey, love, it is a conquest
Honey, Terry Poison never gonna ask for more
Heading high with Jackie Bower

Beach boys and her daddy
They will show up for a rendez-vous
And Kimberly is still dancing
On her spaceship with a prodigy
Darling, where are you heading
It's a disaster, honey, we can ask for more
So wind up, it's only summer love
And in the winter, baby, you'll be back on four
I never thought I'd get here, honey, it's a miracle

Hey, love, it (this) is a (the) conquest
Honey, Terry Poison's never gonna ask for more
