

Tessa Violet, Kitchen Song

If you're going to the kitchen
Leave the door ajar a crack
Cause I just wanna keep on listening
And I can't wait until you're back

God I love it when you're near me
I love the lines around your eyes
And all at once I see it clearly
And I'd spend a lifetime by your side

And I'll give you all my love
I'll give you all my love
Ain't no symphony, No VIP, there ain't no sweeter drug
Than just giving you my love

One, two, three, and four
Quick come kiss me at the door
I don't need a lot when we got flowers at the store
Hey hey hey
So let your castle take my pawn
Let the dogs out on the lawn
And I will write you kitchen songs

And I'll give you all my love
I'll give you all my love
Ain't no symphony, No VIP, there ain't no sweeter drug
Than just giving you my love
Than just giving you my love
Than just giving you my love
Than just giving you my love
