

Testament, Ride

Doesn't know what to do anymore Jesus makes love to the spike a trick for a fix and feeling so sick just can't seem to get right

Once he was the king of his world a world without any order sold it all without thinking twice just for a spoonful of water

Ride, ride on through ride, ride through you
ride, right through you

Ceremonious ritual raising of the veins always early and feeling so late waving goodbye to the train

ride right through you

Slowly scratching away at the world fearless when he is stoned obsessed by the dreams of what could've been trapped in his kingdom alone
