

Testament, WWIII

Device of doom, pure savagery
A holocaust on land or sea
On blighted land these lords of war shall roam

Dictator's oath, his destiny
Destroyer of humanity
Launch an assault that the world has never seen

Nuclear warhead, dropping on the masses
Leaving them all dead before they reach the underground
Seeking out the shelter

Mushroom cloud last thing they see
Vision blurred, their eyeballs bleed
Brutality... fuels the death machine

Organs fail, the blood shall seep
Open sores beyond belief
Slowly rot as you die from the inside out

Nuclear warhead, dropping on the masses
Leaving them all dead before they reach the underground
Turning the streets red
Everything's turned to ashes

Welcome to World War Three
Everyone is gonna die
There is no escape
Your lungs turning black
No one can save you
It's Armageddon!

All hope is lost
The earth's been blown away
It's pouring down
Unholy acid rain
Forever raining blood
Forever blot the sun
Depraved, No sign of life
In Darkness, Devoid of light

Nuclear warhead, dropping on the masses
Leaving them all dead before they reach the underground
Turning the streets red
Everything's turned to ashes
The war of the world
There is no more world
Welcome to World War Three

World burning down
Beyond the dark side

World burning down
Beyond the dark side
We'll all be burning in Hell

World burning down

World burning down
Beyond the dark side
