

Testeagles, Just Another Pop Song

I see the writing
it's clear up on the wall.
It echoes through my head
it echoes through the halls.

I see the writing
It's clear up on the wall.
It echoes through my head
It echoes through the halls.

My life's been fading away
Now I don't know the time of day
YEAH

It's in my head
I'm seeing red
I feel regret

Go on, go on girl.
Go on, go on girl.

I see it coming
It's hinted in the air.
It's led me from content
It's led me to despair.

My life's been fading away
now I don't know the time of day
YEAH

It's in my head
I'm seeing red
I feel regret

I don't need you, in my head
I don't need you, I'm seeing red
I don't need you, I feel regret
I don't need you,

I don't need you
I don't need you
I don't need you
I don't need you, don't need you, don't need you, don't need you, now need you.
