

Testeagles, Underdog

Bring it!

I am the underdog
I am one of many faces
in a room full of people
I wouldn't trade any places

You think that I look like
That I couldn't squash playdough
But inside this body
I'm a MuthaVolcano

Drop the lyric

You all think I'm small & fragile
But I'm agile & I'll wipe your smile in a quick while Take a closer look at the book not it's cover & brother Hows what you discover?

I got what I got Eye of the tiger
Heart of the lion
A will tough as iron

It's common sense to give yourself room cuz' in the end
I'm running free, babe!
Alienation
don't need to be a 2 bit hero displayed in cleo
cuz' I got it inside here ya'll, HERE YA'LL

I am the underdog
I am one of many faces
In a room full of people
I wouldn't trade any places

the originator
the new innovator
why recreate ya
I'll be me that's my nature

And in my mind I can see things that no- one else will ever ever dream of I like to think in my own little way
I'm not insane cuz I listen to the voices in my head

I LIKE TO THINK IN MY OWN LITTLE WAY!!!

I am the underdog, I got the young blood
I am the underdog, I got the young blood
I got the young blood
I got the young blood
I got the young blood
