Testeagles, Underdog

Bring it!

I am the underdog I am one of many faces in a room full of people I wouldn't trade any places

You think that I look like That I couldn't squash playdough But inside this body I'm a MuthaVolcano

Drop the lyric

You all think I'm small & Damp; fragile
But I'm agile & Damp; I'll wipe your smile in a quick while Take a closer look at the book not it's cover & Damp; brother
Hows what you discover?

I got what I got Eye of the tiger Heart of the lion A will tough as iron

It's common sense to give yourself room cuz' in the end I'm running free, babe! Alienation don't need to be a 2 bit hero displayed in cleo cuz' I got it inside here ya'll, HERE YA'LL

I am the underdog I am one of many faces In a room full of people I wouldn't trade any places

the originator the new innovator why recreate ya I'll be me that's my nature

And in my mind I can see things that no- one else will ever ever dream of I like to think in my own little way I'm not insane cuz I listen to the voices in my head

I LIKE TO THINK IN MY OWN LITTLE WAY!!!

I am the underdog, I got the young blood I am the underdog, I got the young blood I got the young blood I got the young blood I got the young blood
