

Texas Is The Reason, A Jack With One Eye

You're not telling me anything that I haven't heard before.

You'll have to try harder than that. You'll have to dig deeper than that.

Reminds me of myself.

You'll have to try harder than that. You'll have to dig deeper than that.

Reminds me of yourself.

You can't hold your breath when you talk

Try not to let sound slip by.

I come from inside.

Raise it up so I can see just what you're doing to me,

Do you even know why?

Your place is still at the heart of my everything.
