

Texas Is The Reason, Dressing Cold

I'm sorry that joke flew right over your head that time
It's not my fault. It wasn't mine. It's not my fault, I couldn't tell
If you were gonna laugh or cry.

At least when you were here I had someone to blame.
I had someone.
Now it's not that easy, and it's not the same.

Well I'm filing all the changes down, I can turn the pages now.
I think I'm doing okay by myself.
It just seems a little lonely now.
Just a little while longer now, to make myself understand how.

At least when you were here I had someone to blame.
I had someone.
Now it's not that easy, and it's not the same.
