

TeZATalks, Find me

Theres no rules to how death may come find me
I ain't scared I just feel like that time is running out so i can't stop for no one will someone press pause and kindly remind me Theres no rules

Lost
I flip it then flip out
Im splitting into sides
I am and my own self
It's loud
The voices keep screaming, keep sippin
Im thinking I hear grim reaper calling me damn Can't answer I don't hollar back
I thought you knew I fuck up but I often have
We all do
Step off
The struggle to hustle you gotta keep going for your own you know they won't

Theres no rules to how death may come find me
I ain't scared I just feel like that time is
running out so i can't stop
for no one will someone press pause and kindly remind me
Theres no rules

Rogue
Will tempt you for something but nothing uncommon so be blunt keep burning out your love
The rumors will roam but I can't see through smoke I got my people next to me my fam, yeah
I finally feel more alive
You can't too
killed my ego for my soul survives
Theres no rules
It's time
No rest for the woken you gotta keep going on your own you know they won't

Theres no rules to how death may come find me
I ain't scared I just feel like that time is
running out so i can't stop
for no one will someone press pause and kindly remind me
Theres no rules

Feed me all your words you claim to eat
Show me all your scars you say still bleed
I don't need no one cuz no one defines me☐
