

Th' Legendary Shack*Shakers, Jipsy Valentine

Take the finest wine in all the land Pour it out on burning sand to raise up the rarest desert rose vine(?) Teach the golden moon to glow
...still on earth below
they will never match my gypsy valentine

The pagan gods be given charge over heaven's shining stars Have them twinkle till they all fall down and die

The oasis of her eyes makes a mirage of the skies They disappear in my gypsy valentine

Make all the sierens of the shore and any muse of ancient lore try their hand at heart-strings of mankind

Voices crackin' the refrain Inspiration fades away
They're just jealous of my gypsy valentine

Eeeeeey gypsy valentine Ooooooh
Gypsy valentine!

On intertwined(?) ... of pygmalion desire is revered like the dearest of lover's lies but fall down on your knees prepare your mind to recieve the pefect form of my gypsy valentine

Beg the tree of knowledge to dare to bloom more in ... forbidden fruit

Bring the nectar down
And curvin(?) serpentine Though the roots grow up from hell sippin' from the holy grail no sin is sweeter than my gypsy valentine.
