

Thao With The Get Down Stay Down, Yes, So On

Love large enough to want to shrink
Been done enough to start to think
I might cut right back on the heart attacks
I might cut right back on the heart attacks
And so on, so on, so on and on
So on, so on and on

It was brave to play
It was an honor to lose
All the banners wave
All the fans salute

I am going away but not away from you
I have found the difference between the two
So on
So on
So on

We want too much
It's a given
In the bones of the matter we live in
I want more than can be given
At the heart of the matter we live in
So on
