

That Dog, You Are Here

You are here. You are there, everywhere.

Love me too. 'Cause you know that I'm nowhere.

Something in the way you move distracts me like no other.

Something in the way you move distracts me like no other. No other.

Eight times a week is not enough to show I'm there.

You can confide your love away.

Something in the way you move distracts me like no other.

Something in the way you move distracts me like no other. No other. (x many)
