

Thaurorod, Two Lonely Souls

You were beckoning me
You summoned in my dreams
I feel you everywhere
Your grave it is my bed

Remember how we were
As we ignored the world
You saved me through your smile
Still here I'm asking why

Here I am but you can't see me
You can only here my voice in the night
Watch the moon and you will meet me
Watch the moon and you'll be here in the night

So here I stand empty world at my feet
Silence and torment are tearing in me
My life it ceased when you left me alone
I'm feeling weak we are two lonely souls

So here I stand empty world at my feet
Silence and torment are tearing in me
My life it ceased when you left me alone
I'm feeling weak we are two lonely souls
