The 69 Eyes, Angel On My Shoulder

I wanna feel you now, Like a thousand lies Bleeding out of your heart, Burning in the night Don't wanna see you crying, Fallen out of light

I wanna feel you now, Like an August rain Kissing summer goodbyes, I wanna see your pain Don't wanna see you crying, Fallen out of light

I don't wanna see you crying little angel on my shoulder, I wanna see you flying, back to heaven where you belong

I wanna feel you now, Like a thousand knives Digging out of my heart, Burning in the night Don't wanna see you crying, Fallen out of light

Don't wanna see you crying little angel on my shoulder I wanna see you flying, back to heaven where you belong

Don't wanna see you crying little angel on my shoulder I said alright, gonna get you crying Come hell or high water Since you've been gone

Don't wanna see you crying little angel on my shoulder I wanna see you flying, back to heaven where you belong

Don't wanna see you crying little angel on my shoulder I said alright, gonna get you crying Come hell or high water Since you've been gone Since you've been gone Since you've been gone
